Colorado: A Skier's Paradise

Colorado is renowned for its pristine powder, legendary slopes, and breathtaking landscapes. Ikon Pass grants you access to four exceptional resorts, each offering a unique experience.

- Aspen Snowmass: Nestled amidst the majestic Elk Mountains, Aspen Snowmass boasts four interconnected mountains with over 5,000 acres of skiable terrain, catering to both seasoned skiers and beginners.

- Copper Mountain: Known as "Copper Country," this resort features a wide variety of terrain for all levels, including the thrilling Woodward Terrain Park and the expansive Woodward Copper superpipe.
- Steamboat Springs: Immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of Steamboat Springs, with its renowned Champagne Powder and the picturesque Steamboat Ski Resort offering classic runs and powder bowls.
- Winter Park Resort: Located just 67 miles from Denver, Winter Park Resort boasts a diverse range of trails for all abilities, including the renowned Mary Jane terrain.

Utah: The Powder Heaven

Utah's legendary powder and breathtaking mountains make it a skier's and snowboarder's dream. Ikon Pass opens the doors to two of the state's most iconic resorts.

- Alta Ski Area: Nestled high in the Wasatch Mountains, Alta boasts legendary powder and steep chutes, making it a haven for advanced skiers and powder enthusiasts.
- Snowbird Resort: Located adjacent to Alta, Snowbird offers a perfect blend of challenging and beginner-friendly terrain, with breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains.

Wyoming: The Wild, Wild West of Skiing

Wyoming offers a unique blend of rugged terrain, big skies, and legendary Western hospitality. Ikon Pass grants you access to two of the state's most celebrated resorts.

- Jackson Hole Mountain Resort: Nestled in the heart of the Teton Mountains, Jackson Hole is a skier's paradise with challenging slopes, breathtaking views, and an abundance of powder.
- Grand Targhee Resort: Located in the pristine Caribou-Targhee National Forest, Grand Targhee offers a laid-back atmosphere and uncrowded slopes, perfect for exploring the backcountry.
