But what do his contemporaries have to say about him? Here is a comprehensive look at Mario Lemieux as seen by his contemporaries:

On the ice

Lemieux was a dominant force on the ice. He was a gifted skater, a skilled puck-handler, and a deadly scorer. His contemporaries were in awe of his abilities.

"He's the best player I've ever seen," said Wayne Gretzky, another legendary hockey player. "He can do it all."

"He's the most complete player in the game," said Mark Messier, another legendary hockey player. "He can score goals, set up his teammates, and play defense."

"He's the most dangerous player in the league," said Joe Sakic, another legendary hockey player. "He can score from anywhere on the ice."

Off the ice

Lemieux was also a great teammate and leader. He was always willing to help his teammates, and he always put the team first.

"He's a great leader," said Ron Francis, a former teammate of Lemieux's. "He's always positive, and he always knows how to get the best out of his teammates."

"He's a true gentleman," said Ray Bourque, another former teammate of Lemieux's. "He's always respectful of his opponents, and he's always gracious in victory and defeat."

A legend

Mario Lemieux is a true legend of the game of hockey. He is one of the greatest players to ever play the game, and he is respected by his peers both on and off the ice.

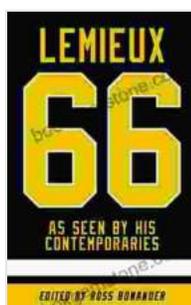

Here are some additional quotes from Lemieux's contemporaries:

"He's the best player I've ever played with," said Ulf Samuelsson, a former teammate of Lemieux's.

"He's the most skilled player I've ever seen," said Scotty Bowman, a former coach of Lemieux's.

"He's the most dominant player I've ever seen," said Bob Cole, a legendary hockey broadcaster.
