By Katrina Lawrence

In this captivating and deeply moving memoir, Katrina Lawrence recounts her extraordinary journey of love, loss, and redemption in the heart of Paris.

Katrina's story begins with a whirlwind romance in the City of Light. She meets Jean-Luc, a charming and handsome Frenchman, and falls head over heels in love. But their fairy-tale romance is cut short when Jean-Luc is diagnosed with a terminal illness.

Katrina's world is shattered. She must now navigate the uncharted waters of grief and loss, all while trying to make sense of her life in a foreign country.

But even in the depths of her despair, Katrina finds glimmers of hope and healing. She discovers the power of love, friendship, and her own resilience. She learns to embrace the beauty of life, even in its most difficult moments.

Paris Dreaming is a story of love, loss, and redemption. It is a testament to the human spirit's ability to overcome adversity and find joy in the face of heartbreak.
